

2011 SCLC Summer Camp

Social and Cognitive Learning Center (SCLC) provides social skills coaching, executive function coaching, cognitive training, and other support services for children and adults.

PROGRAM 1: Camp Cogmed[®]

Cogmed[®] is an evidence-based computer program geared to improve one's focus, organization, attention, and social skills. Campers will train for 30-45 minutes for 25 sessions, over 5 weeks. There will be a Cogmed[®] training aid to supervise the training.

Dates: June 27th – August 2nd, 2011
(Incoming 5th – 12th grade students)

Time: 1:30-2:30pm

All sessions: Monday through Friday (closed on July 4th)

- There will be no training on August 2nd; we will have a party.
- If sessions are missed, training will be expected to be made up at home or at SCLC with special arrangements.
- Campers must be picked up/leave when finished to ensure that the center remains quiet for other campers.
- If a camper also participates in Camp iROC (8:30-1:00), supervision will be provided between 1:00-1:30pm.

Supplies needed: Laptop & noise-cancellation headphone (computers may be available to use at SCLC; please inquire)

Transportation: SCLC does not provide transportation. However, encourage parents to speak to each other for carpooling or sharing a hired driver, if needed.

Cost: $1600 per 1 full Cogmed[®] Camp ($100 deposit will be applied towards the total, and can be refunded up to 4 weeks prior to the first day of camp)

PROGRAM 2: Camp iROC

iROC is a program for children and teens to help them be INDependent, RESponsible, ORGANIZED, and CONfident. Each week-long session will have different themes with hands-on experiences, possible field trips, and real-life applications to spark their interests and motivation.

Camp iROC will be facilitated by Noriko Abenojar, Founder/Director of SCLC, and TJ Vidales; Director of iROC Education and Family Consulting.
